

The Program

Ki Futures is the only international coaching and training program for sustainability, turning intention into action and positioning the cultural sector as future-oriented thought leaders. Join the future now!

Features

Ki Futures redesigns sustainability to make it sustainable. Our global, holistic approach presents sustainability as a journey, applying practical action and positioning culture as leaders for the future. We provide the support systems, resources, tools, and network needed to tackle every issue; on an individual, institutional, and sectoral level.

Coaches

Ki Coaches are sustainability and culture specialists working together and with you to mentor and guide your sustainability journey.

Trainings

Trainings are a core component of the program, providing foundational understanding of sustainability concepts and in-depth education on cultural specific topics.

Core Trainings

- Materials
- Energy
- Social Sustainability
- Exhibitions/Productions
- Education & Engagement
- Sustainable Tourism
- Decolonization

Deep Dive Trainings

- Futures Literacy
- Behavioral Economics
- The Anthropocene
- Climate Literacy
- PR & CSR Communications
- Audience Engagement
- Fundraising for Sustainability
- Accreditation
- Circularity
- Degrowth
- Storytelling for Climate

Projects and Workshops

Each quarter is dedicated to a specific project which provides tangible outcomes:

Setting Yourself Up for Success
Developing Your Baseline
Measuring Your Carbon Footprint
SDGs & Policy

Designing a Circular Exhibition/Production
Decolonization
Conducting a Materials & Waste Audit
Creating a Local Materials Exchange Network

Ki Port

The Ki Port is the custom built Ki Futures online hub. All information and the entire community is available on the Ki Port. Connect with the Ki Futures network, search through our user-generated case study library, and find resources you need in the toolkit.

Participants

Join cultural actors around the world. Pilot Participants include: Schauspielhaus Graz, National Theatre Prague, Deutsches Theater, the European Theatre Convention, Staatstheater Braunschweig, Theater Dortmund, Slovak National Theatre, Slovene National Theatre Nova Gorica, Cyprus Theatre Organization/THOC, Théâtre de Liège, and Teatro Nacional D. Maria II.

Ki Futures works with leading museum, conservation, and cultural professional bodies globally including: Mitos 21, Julie's Bicycle, CSPA, Creative Green Tools, Instituto Distrital de las Artes - Idartes, Creative Carbon Scotland, Sustainable Production Toolkit at Barnard College, International Coalition for Sustainable Cultural Tools, Environment and Culture Partners, the Climate Heritage Network, the Theatre Greenbook, Broadway Green Alliance, and more.

Price

To provide equitable access globally, subscription fees are based on the carbon footprint of the participant. If no carbon calculation is available, the participant will begin with an estimate based on the type of organization, size, and location.

Prices range from 1.500 to 6.000 EUR annually.

Why this works

Ki Futures was conceived by a cultural professional who understands the unique needs of the sector. The program continues to develop through a co-creative, inclusive process. Ki Futures breaks down the consultancy model by providing international peer-to-peer learning platforms and focuses on integrating sustainability into every job, at every institution. At Ki Futures, you will be a part of a community of doers, thinkers, and leaders exchanging knowledge and finding solutions.

Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions apply and can be found here. There is no end date to the program, yearly subscriptions automatically renew unless terminated.

Application and Contact

Ki Futures officially begins for the performing arts sector in September, but we are now accepting applications!

Reserve your spot by applying today!

For more information or any questions, do not hesitate to contact us at kifutures@kiculture.org.

We look forward to welcoming you!

